The Zoning Administrator shall forthwith deliver a claim of appeal with a notation of time and date received to the Chairman of the Zoning Board of Appeals. The Chairman shall schedule a hearing within forty-five (45) days on the appeal and give notice to all interested parties at least ten (10) days prior to the hearing. The Chairperson is responsible for notification and all related paperwork for cases.

SECTION 1702. HEARINGS AND ORDERS BY THE ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS, RE: VARIANCES

The Zoning Board of Appeals shall hear all matters properly before it, and shall give every interested person an opportunity to be heard. The Zoning Board of Appeals may reverse or affirm, wholly or in part, the denial, order, or determination appealed from, and may issue such orders as are necessary to carry out its decisions. Upon its specific finding that a denial or order appealed from creates a practical difficulty or unnecessary hardship even though such denial or order may itself conform to the strict letter of this Ordinance, the Zoning Board of Appeals may issue its order in variance of modification of the provisions hereof to effectuate the spirit of the Ordinance, the public safety, or substantial justice.

- 1.No variance granted before June 13th, 2002 shall set precedence because of significant changes in the ordinance.
- 2.No appeals for Planned Unit Developments or special land uses are allowed.
- 3.The burden of proof during hearing shall be clear and convincing.
- 4.No use variances are allowed.
- 5.Only dimensional variances are appealable on nonconforming lots, downtown, and rebuilds.

The ZBA must function solely to provide relief for the rare, exceptional situation where conforming to the ordinance would be impossible or extremely onerous.

The Zoning Board of Appeals must review and satisfy the following conditions in order for a variance to be granted:

- a) Whether compliance with the strict letter of the restrictions governing area, setbacks, frontage, height, building, or density would unreasonably prevent the owner from using the property for a permitted purpose or would render conformity with such restrictions unnecessarily burdensome.

b) Whether a grant of the variance applied for would do substantial justice to the applicant as well to other property owners in the district or whether a lesser relaxation than that applied for would give substantial justice to the owner of the property involved and be more consistent with justice to other property owners.

c) Whether the problem is unique to the property owner's own land or whether it is a problem shared by all others in the district.

d) Whether relief can be granted in such a fashion that the spirit of the ordinance will be observed and public safety and welfare secured.

e) Whether the problem was self-created.

The Board of Appeals may impose such conditions as it deems appropriate in granting a variance or modification order. All decisions of the Zoning Board of Appeals shall be in writing and briefly state its findings of fact, interpretation of the Ordinance, its conclusions, and shall include its orders for the disposition of the matter. All rulings shall be enforced by the Zoning Administrator unless a stay is ordered by circuit court.

SECTION 1703. APPEALS FROM AN ORDER OF THE ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS: Amended 11/2006

P.A. 33 of 2008, MCL125.3801, et.seq. provides that a person having an interest affected by the zoning ordinance may appeal a decision of the Zoning Board of Appeals to a Circuit Court. Any appeal must be filed within thirty (30) days after this decision and order is adopted by the Zoning Board of Appeals.
